Beaufort Jazz swings into 2009 with the return of John Jorgenson. John is one of the finest exponents of Hot Club style of music and has recently appeared as Django Reinhardt in the film Head In The Clouds. Regulars at the Beaufort will remember his previous sell out performances and will not want to miss the only North West appearance by the J.J. Quintet. John is also well known for his work with Elton John and The Hellecasters but at the Beaufort he will be doing what he enjoys most, playing Gypsy Jazz. This show will sell out so early booking is advised.
